

How to get from Prague airport to Novotel Wenceslas Square

Unfortunately there is no direct metro or train connection to the city, leaving public buses as the only budget transport option from the airport to the city centre.

It's a three steps process to get to the hotel: Bus - Metro - Walk

First: Take Bus No 119 to Metro station Dejvická

A: Follow the sign “City Bus” at Terminal 1 (Exit D, E, F) or Terminal 2 (Exit C, D, E)

B: Buy a ticket at the Prague Public Transport ticket counter

You should purchase a ticket before travelling or, if arriving late and all shops are closed, buy a ticket directly from the driver – but note that large banknotes are not accepted. Prague Public Transport counters are located in the arrival halls of Terminal 1 and Terminal 2, open from 7:00 a.m. till 10:00 p.m. There are also coin-operated vending machines at each airport bus stop, or you can purchase your ticket directly from the bus driver. When buying a ticket from the driver, please note that only cash is accepted (large banknotes are not accepted) and you will pay an additional surcharge.

Basic ticket: adults CZK 32 / children CZK 16; when purchased from the driver: adults CZK 40 / children CZK 20 – all tickets are valid for 90 minutes on any type of public transport.

When buying a 32 CZK ticket for public transport, you will receive a transferable ticket allowing you to travel for a 90-minute period. Note that if you are carrying any large pieces of luggage; e.g., a backpack or suitcase, you will need to purchase an additional half-price ticket (16 CZK).

Please check the current fares at the Prague Public Transport counters in the arrival halls of Terminal 1 and Terminal 2 or visit www.dp-praha.cz

C: Get on the bus No 119 direction “Dejvická”

D: Validate your ticket

Validate tickets immediately upon entering the vehicle. Use the ticket validation machines located on the holding poles near to the vehicle doors.

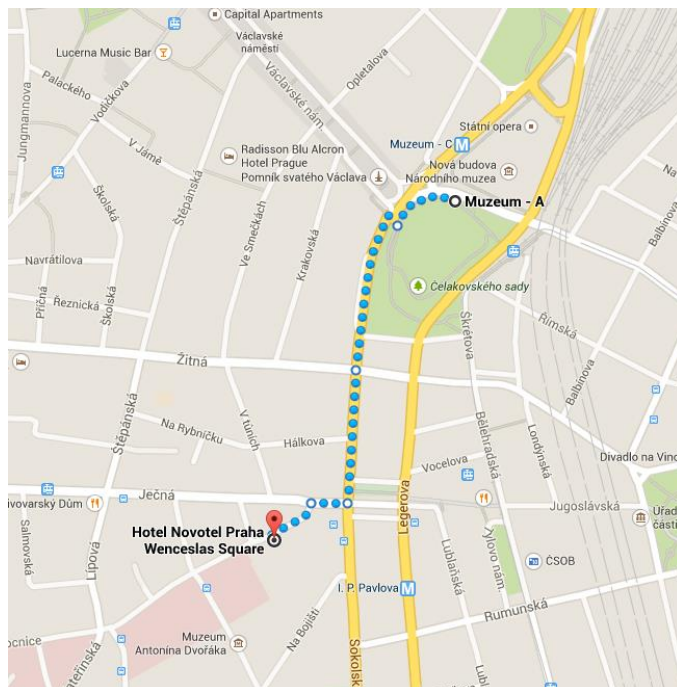

E: Get off the bus at the last station “Dejvická” and transfer to Metro Line A (Green Line)

Second: Take Metro Line A (Green Line) and get off the train at station “Muzeum”

Third: Two options to walk:

Option A: 10 minutes' walk to the hotel

Option B:

Take Metro Line C (Red Line) and get off at the next station “I. P. Pavlova” and walk four minutes from there to the hotel.

Note: you will have to walk first from station Muzeum-A to Muzeum-C to be able to access Metro Line C.
